The Inside Story

Established in 1978, Northern Lights has been brightening the world and beautifying homes with the warmth of candlelight for over 35 years. Our strong roots in the “art of candle making” have led to an eminent reputation as a leading designer of luxury candles and artisan made accessories. Our hand poured candles are made in the USA. We use fine fragrances that include essential oils. Our wax blends contain soy and other natural based waxes. Our wicks are made of pure cotton. Our vessels come from responsible sources and are designed to be repurposed. This combinations of quality components gives our artisan-made candles their clean burning qualities, superior fragrance throw and contributes to their long-lasting value.

Our mission is to bring creatively designed, socially responsible products to market that will inspire your customers, while providing you with profitable products that help support your business. By sourcing materials both domestically and internationally, we’re also able to support local artists and their communities around the world. We feel privileged to be your partner as we brighten the world together. We hope you enjoy our new 2016 catalog.

- All the best, from all of us at Northern Lights

Roca

Roca stoneware ceramic bowls are hand-cast with bold marbled colors and filled with distinctive Mediterranean fragrances. This large 3-wick, 24 ounce bowl burns well over 60 hours for prolonged enjoyment. A great vessel to repurpose.

HOW IT'S MADE

The Roca candle is made from a clay model created on a potter's wheel. To replicate the model, many castings are made in plaster moulds. Each mould is filled by hand with two liquid clay colors as seen in the four color variations. Artisans deliberately rock the mould to coat the inside creating the hottest trend in marbled effects.
